Answers:

1. (b) No, Easter does not fall on the same day each year. The date of Easter Sunday is celebrated on the first Sunday after the full moon, on or after the 21st March. In 2021 Easter Sunday is on 4 April.

2. (b) Bonnet. An Easter bonnet is made and decorated for Easter, usually as part of a goodhearted competition.

3. (a) Shrove Tuesday is the day we all get to eat pancakes

4. (c) The 40 days before Easter is called Lent

5. (d) One a penny, two a pennyHot Cross Buns are traditionally eaten on Good Friday.

6. (c) 95 Countries celebrate Easter, but many have their own traditions, here's a few that are different to our traditions of Easter Egg & Bonnet decorating and of course, Easter Egg Hunts!

Germany – decorate Easter Trees and light bonfires

In Germany they decorate Easter Trees like our Christmas Trees and light bonfires.

In Poland, Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovakia they celebrate with a big water fight – soaking each other with buckets of water!

In Finland & Sweden children dress up as witches and call at their friends' houses in the hope of receiving chocolate!

7. True! Easter Island is a real place. Why is it called Easter Island? The first-recorded European visitor arrived on Easter Sunday in 1722. So 'Easter Island' became its nickname. The island also has a Polynesian name, which is Rapa Nui, and means 'naval of the world'.

8. (a) It's a Chick. It wouldn't feel like Easter without these little cuties!

9. (b) Greece only use the colour red to decorate their Easter eggs. The eggs represent the blood of Christ and rebirth. In Greece, they also play a household game with the eggs called Tsougrisma, which translates as 'clinking' and involves two opponents trying to crack the other's egg first.
